

Director

B.A., M.A. (Politics)

Basically Mr. Pranav is from farming background. Farmers development, Unemployment, Unorganized Labour sector and Poverty are always his subjects of studies. He is very serious about in toto development in agriculture for the upliftment of the economic status of the farmers. He has special emphasis on quality education, skill development in general and agriculture in particular and prior importance to give the exposures to the rural students at international platform for their higher studies and training. For the purpose he had travelled a lot at national and Internationally, attended reputed agricultural institutes and had discussion with Researchers and Professors in the field. He had travelled to Singapore, Malaysia, Thailand, Macau, Indonesia, Hong Kong etc. to get more information and knowledge.

He is an Author of a Book on Urban and Rural Development through Integrated Agricultural Development (2022)